The night goes into morning, just another day.
 Happy people pass my way.
 Looking in their eyes; I see a memory and Never realized how happy you made me.

Man struggles to find life outside of himself, unaware that the life he is seeking is within himself.

I see that life is a circle
But that ain't the way that I found it,
Gonna move in a straight line
Keepin' my feet firmly on the ground.

The behavior of the fully human being is always unpredictable — simply because it is free.

I am a part of all that I have met.

*Little seeds of the pine initiate creation
 Little thoughts of our mind
 propagate our nation
 Little actions and little deeds grow to become our world, our creed.*

Who's Who

The 1975 Who's Who, sponsored by the East Central Hornet Annual Staff, was held in the gymnasium here at East Central. The Jr. High awards were presented along with the high school by various individuals during the awards ceremony. Emcee for the program was Reagan Wyser, a senior here at school. Each winner received a certificate, which was designed by George Scarbrough, also a senior here. A dance featuring Brimstone followed the awards presentations, rounding out the Who's Who evening.

The 1974-75 Hall of Fame contains twelve of East Central's finest students. Their activities range from Church Youth Programs to Science Fairs to Band to Football and all maintain qualities that uphold a fine representation of our High School.

Walter Shackelford Lowry, a versatile fellow, is a faithful member of the Annual Staff, the Band, and the Science Club. He is valedictorian and head of the graduating class of 1975 with a high "A" average. Walter will be well-remembered for his many achievements and continuing good spirits.

Reagan Lloyd Wyser is noted for his leadership ability and fervent love of sports. He is basketball team captain and is the '75 recipient of the H.S. Best Rebounder Award.

Susan Denise Bush is appreciated for her loyal continuity of service in the E.C. Band. A talented flutist, she is also a majorette and has received the honorable superior rating at Solo and Ensemble Contest.

Reagan and Susan share the salutatorian honor. Incredibly, they tie with a 94.6 scholastic average.

Walter

BRENT

James Brent Cumbest is remembered especially for his cheery personality. He is chosen as Mr. E.C.H.S., Class Favorite, and Most Likely to Succeed this 1974-75 year. He is a Student Council activist, an officer in the Beta Club, the Senior Class Vice President, and a member of the Band and the Football Team.

Lisa Darlene Cumbest is an avid actuator in almost every club our school has seen fit to offer. Seldom does one find her without an impending project at hand, be it fund-raising or fun-raising. Perhaps because of her genuine concern and involvement, Lisa is well-liked among the students here and is the recipient of such honors as Miss E.C.H.S., Friendliest, and Most Popular.

George Linwood Scarbrough may seem to most to be chiefly an intent musician, but little is it known just how many activities in which he is a part. It is true that he holds several offices in the Band, but George also finds the time for those tedious tasks that few will undertake. For example, he is the '75 Senior Wall Emblem designer, as well as the originator and artist of this year's E.C. Who's Who Winner Certificates. His quiet creativity is realized and appreciated.

George

Barry Eugene Smith is a guy who possesses an unusual portion of amiability. His ability to get along with everyone is admired by all he meets and has seen him elected to such positions as Senior Class President and Student Council President. Barry is an active sportsman and an able initiator. East Central needs more Barry Smiths.

Gerald Eugene Rice is a subtle sort of person. You can always find Gerald where he is supposed to be, doing what he is supposed to do. Although he is involved with football and track and other extracurricular activities, his grades are impervious to these partakings and he is always caught up in class . . . if only more students would follow Gerald's example.

Brenda LeBourhis Sims is remembered for her valuable service to the Band during her four high school years. Brenda is the head majorette for the E.C. Band and is proven to be a responsible leader. Always at work on a new routine, she's kept pride in the Majorette Corps and competition in the flute section.

Linda Lavelle Wells is just as active a student outside school as she is in. She is involved in her church MYF group, the 4-H Club, and the local softball team. Always smiling, Linda seems to have somehow found that knack for living that all are continuously searching for in life. She and her many comparable friends will certainly be missed.

Robert Bradley Orso is, maybe because of his gratifying personality, a very popular image at E.C. High. He is the winner of the coveted Most Handsome and Most Popular Awards in the 1975 Who's Who Program. Robert also holds the Best-Dressed title for his junior and senior years. In addition to his popularity, Robert is noted for his offensive running and blocking in football.

Brenda Sue Clark is an acute case of real school spirit. On the basketball team for her four consecutive high school years, she is an excellent example of a real trooper. Brenda doesn't just join, she commits herself to all she becomes involved in. She is also a steady softball teammate. Because of her real sense of commitment, Brenda has become a true part of East Central and will be remembered as one who is genuinely concerned.

Activities

Homecoming

Our 74-75 Homecoming activities were brought to an exciting climax with the crowning of Lisa Cumbest as queen. Lisa was chosen queen by the varsity football team after being nominated by her senior class.

Representatives for the senior class were Angela Pierce, Cheryl Sward, and Carolyn Goff. Chosen as junior class maids were Barbara Long, Kathy Shumock, and Debbie Webb. Sophomore representatives were Susie Tynes, Shirley Wells, and Cindy Day.

Each girl was escorted by her father.

Junior High Homecoming

The Junior High Homecoming of the 1974-75 Hornet year was an exciting event. As the years pass, each activity seems to get bigger and better at E.C. High. Out "Junior Homecoming" showed many cynics that the junior division is making progress as well.

Freshman Leta Goff was chosen by the Junior High Hornet Team to reign over the annual event. She was crowned by the 1973-74 Junior High School Homecoming Queen, Miss Susie Tynes.

1975 Beauty Pageant

On March 29, 1975, East Central's third annual beauty pageant was held. There were 32 contestants from grades 9-12 that competed for the title of Most Beautiful and class beauties.

The pageant was directed by Mary Dubose with all proceeds going to the Hornet Staff.

Edwina Jones (right) was chosen Most Beautiful and Most Photogenic.

Below are winners who are also pictured on pages 34, 35, and 36.

For the first time in our annual pageant, the contestants chose the girl whom they thought possessed charm, beauty, and the ability to get along well with others. This, the Miss Congeniality Award, was a tie between two very deserving girls. Dianne Morrison (upper left) and Denise Wells (upper right).

Entertainment was provided by E.C.'s fantastic duo, Tab Hinton and Randy Whitley (left).

A Night of One-Acts

The class of '75 presented a superb night of one-act plays under the direction of Mr. Tim Rose and Mr. Larry French. The students were chosen based on their performance at an audition prior to the play.

The seniors had a great time organizing and presenting these plays.

Plays and participants were:

"A Pair of Lunatics," played by Lisa Cumbest and Reagan Wyser.

"The Puppet Master," with Angela Pierce, George Scarbrough, and Reagan Wyser, narrator.

Ending the program was "Keep Your Halo Straight." The cast consisted of John Overstreet, Barry Smith, Ann Windsor, Donna Wilson, Robin Whittington, David Knight, Nadine Wasden, Jill Moree, and Christine Ivey, stage manager.

This marks the end of another senior tradition.

Junior-Senior Prom

The 1975 East Central Junior-Senior Prom was held at the Ramada Inn in Mobile, Alabama. This was the first prom in several years to be held away from the school. It was a DEFINITE FIRST for a banquet to precede the dance.

The program during the banquet included the reading of the class will and the class prophesy. Everyone seemed to really get a "kick" out of that, (sometimes the kick was good, sometimes it was bad). Laughter was continual. It all went over very well, but you could tell that we were anxious to hear the band.

AMERICANA of Mobile played for the dance that was held in the Camelia room. Faculty, parents, and students alike danced to the rock and roll. There was really a wonderful sense of togetherness. Everyone seemed to know everyone else. Good feelings got into us all. The night flew by.

That Saturday, May 10, will be a date we'll always remember. Next year's prom will hold a whole new crowd of faces and reactions and fun. We may never pass this way again - the theme. It

Graduation 1975

Commencement exercises were held on May 22 at the stadium. Walter Lowry delivered the Valedictory address after Susan Bush and Reagan Wyser had given the Salutatory speeches. The theme of the addresses was "Our Class - Past, Present, Future."

Following the talks, the Balfour Award for excellence was presented to Lisa Cumbest. Mr. Mallette then presented diplomas to the eighty-six matriculants who had completed all the requirements for graduation.

Our sincere congratulations and best wishes go to all of the seniors as they begin the major portion of their education.

An End to Beginning

Football at

East Central

The 1975 Hornet football team employed a potent ground attack led by Senior Gregory Simmons, who accounted for 1039 yards rushing throughout the season even though hampered by leg trouble. The remaining backs combined their strengths for an additional 924 yards, giving the backfield an average of 196.3 yds. per game in a season dominated by the run. Quarterback Terry Long supplemented the rushing game with a creditable passing performance. He averaged 18.6 yards per completion. Forty-six per-cent of Long's passes were caught by leading receiver Billy Wayne Wallace, who averaged 20 yds. per reception.

Gregory Simmons pulled down honors as leading scorer for the year. In addition to averaging an impressive 6.7 yards per carry, "Mr. Simmons" scored 13 touchdowns.

The defensive team was led by Senior Terry Jones who averaged a bruising 7.5 tackles per game. Billy Wayne Wallace (also a Senior) was a close second, averaging 7 tackles per game. Obie Wells was third in tackles, averaging 6.3 per game.

Hornets give Pass their best effort in 12-6 prep loss

HURLEY — Two for six passing is nothing to brag about, but it helps when both completions are for touchdowns.

That's how it was Thursday night here as the Pascagoula River Conference leading Pass Christian Pirates eked out a 12-6 victory over wounded, but tough East Central.

The hosting Hornets, without star halfback Greg Simmons for the first time this season, fought yard for yard with the unbeaten Pirates. Only on the scoreboard.

Special to the Press-Register The East Central Hornets of coach Jay Fletcher rolled up a 26-0 first half lead Friday night then coasted to a 39-19 victory over St. John.

Recently returned running back Robert Orso got the Hornets in front quickly with his one-yard burst in the first quarter. A pass from quarterback Terry Long to Billy Wallace a few minutes later ran the margin up to 12-0 before Philip Scarborough converted to make it 13-0.

Still in the first period, East Central scored again with Roy Smith recovering a St. John fumble on the Eagles 12-yard line. Greg Simmons took it in from there and Scarborough again converted for a 20-0 advantage.

With 11:23 left in the half, Simmons caught fire with an 84-yard run from scrimmage that put the Hornets into the driver's seat for good.

St. John retaliated briefly with 5:53 left in the second quarter as Pat Prejean scored on a 17-yard run. The extra point attempt was blocked.

Eugene McNally put another St. John six points on the board with a 19-yard touchdown pass to Jackie Laverett. The PAT was good.

East Central's line was manned by center Jimmy Crane, guard David Bullock and Buddy Dear and tackles Philip Scarborough and Barry Smith. Obie Wells played tight end.

Simmons carried 17 times for 168 yards and Orso had 10 tries for 102.

"Still, we created a lot of turnovers that were uncalled for," said coach Fletcher. "I think our offensive had its best game of the year, however. They opened some gigantic holes in there."

Pictured below is our own Clint Matthews who for more than 10 years has announced our football games. He is assisted by spotter Marvin Hicks. East Central would like to extend all our thanks to Mr. Matthews for a job well done.

At a post season banquet six of our boys were honored for their outstanding performances on the field. The award for the most improved player went to Donald Nelson. Receiving the award for best defensive player was Gary Turner. Jimmy Crane was awarded the Sportsmanship award. The most valuable lineman was Buddy Dean. The most valuable back award went to none other than Gregory Simmons. The award for the most valuable player was received by Billy Wayne Wallace.

The '75 Hornet season was marked by moments of ecstasy and disappointment. However, the pleasant highlights far outweighed the less happier times for this fan. Who could forget the last-second win over St. Stanislaus, or the thrilling comeback to tie St. Martin, the darting runs of Gregory, or the swarming defense of the Hornets?

We wish to extend our appreciation to all the members of the team, the coaches, the members of the Booster club, and everyone else who contributed to making 1975 a banner football season at E.C.H.S.

Varsity Basketball

Basketball is a sport which calls for countless numbers of steps, jumps and acts of coordination throughout an entire game. These are only possible through hours of strenuous conditioning and practice under a watchful eye. These next few pages of snapshots show the agility and efforts of a team who are winners at heart, which is where the seed of all successful athletes begin to grow.

The boys were honored with a post-season award banquet. The award for most improved player went to both Walt Stuart and James Kelley. Tim May was awarded for being the Best Defensive player. The Best Rebounder award went to Reagan Wyser. Woodie Hudson was honored with the Sportsmanship award. The award for the Most Valuable Player went to Brian Martin.

The most valuable player was Debbie Webb.

Jr. High

Boys Brand

The boys team did an exceptionally good job this year. We posted a 13-6 record, which is the best record posted by a Junior High team in many years. There were two players voted to the PRC conference. They were Lavon James and Paul Pinson.

This year the award for the most improved player was Curtis Nelson. The sportsmanship award went to Robert Simmons. Lavon James received the award for the most valuable player.

Basketball

Girls Style

The girls team this year was very young and inexperienced. We are only losing three players and the future should be excellent for next year. These girls were awarded at their banquet: Most Improved player - Charlene Griffith, Sportsmanship Award - Lesette Hartsfield, and Most Valuable Player - Virginia Stewart.

Academics

Jerry G. Nobles, our 1974-75 principal, has been with us for the past three years. He has taken up a lot of time with the students to show us respect and honor, through the best and worst times. Mr. Nobles is a very active person in our school's various activities. He attends all football, basketball, and baseball games. For a person to be so active, he still finds plenty of time for the students. Mr. Nobles is the principal of 1,800 students and you can be sure that's a real job. It's a very serious job and no one seems to understand why a person who comes to work every day in a suit and a smile, can leave every day with a headache and a frown. The students at East Central High School are proud to say he's "Our Principal."

Serving his first year as high school principal is Mr. Bill Williams. Mr. Williams, former elementary teacher, received a B.S. in health and Education from the University of Southern Mississippi. He also received a M.A. in school administration from the University of South Alabama. His chief duties are teaching the students rules and regulations of our school, maintaining a good learning environment, and insuring smooth lines of communications between faculty and administration. He is a very understanding individual. We salute Mr. Williams, a principal with principles.

she still finds time to fulfill her administrative duties.

In her second year as Elementary principal is Mrs. Cynthia Lumpkin. She graduated with a B.S. in Elementary Education from Auburn University, and has since obtained a M.A. from the University of South Alabama. Always helping those little ones with those important problems they seem to have,

Dear Students:

Your working together, your fun loving attitude, your vision, your willingness to promote something great is what distinguishes Jackson County School Students from all others.

Throughout your school years education has been stressed and impressed on your thinking as essential for the continuation of progress and a good life.

Therefore, be a good example. This is the strongest influence in life. It is sure. It too distinguishes you from all others.

The best to each of you.

Sincerely,
M. H. Mallette,
Superintendent

Counseling, one of the most important facets of student life, goes much farther than general information. This area is headed by two fine men, Mr. L. R. Nelson (upper right) High School counselor, and B. A. Kitchens, Jr. High counselor (right).

These men are always anxious to help a student develop both emotionally and educationally.

For many years our school has been served by Mr. Bobby Moesch as mechanic. On many occasions his skill has been priceless.

As for office help, we have the top of the line. Alice Long (far right) taking care of matters as School Secretary and Bookkeeper. Working all areas in the High School office is Carolyn Baily (top), and Jeanette Ivey (left) coordinating business in the Elementary Office.

Organizations

The 1975 Hornet Staff

Each year the unenviable task of compiling a picture history of that year falls upon the shoulders of a select group of students. This year's staff is no less select than in previous years. The 1975 Hornet staffers were led by seniors Walter Lowry, Lisa Cumbest, George Scarbrough and David Knight. The remaining four members, who will return for an encore year, are Melinda Matthews, Rose Ryals, Teresa Cumbest, and Rhonda Reeves.

I wish to take this opportunity to publically commend these eight students for a job well done. It has been a pleasure for me to be associated with such a fine group of young people.

Oh yes, the ugly one in the pictures with the beard is me, their advisor, and I swear I wasn't the one who made them angry.

Library Club and Science Club

The library is a very essential part of the school system. Without the help of the Library Club members, (top photo), students here would be unable to use the library facilities fully and properly. With their encouragement, the promotion of new books, and book sales, the East Central Library grows and progresses more each year.

The Library Club sponsors an annual educational trip for its members and also awards a $50 scholarship to the senior member of their choice.

Our librarian, Mrs. Sandra Rasberry, sponsors the club and its activities. Officers are Carol Bourn, President; Gayla Baricev, Vice; Leta Goff, Secretary; Lisa Cumbest, Treasurer.

Under the leadership of Coach Fletcher, with the aid of Mr. Owens, the East Central Science Club (bottom photo) organizes and sponsors the annual Science Fair. They bring in judges and distribute awards to students for outstanding projects in each division.

Officers are George Scarbrough, President; Walter Lowry, Vice; Charlene Cumbest, Secretary-Treasurer.

High School Student Council

The 1974-75 High School Student Council has sponsored several activities this year. One learning experience was a trip to Perkinson Junior College for an all-day workshop in which President Barry Smith sat in representation of our school on a questioning panel. The Council heard lectures on parliamentary procedure and student government ritual, and Governor Bill Waller spoke. After a full day of seeing student government in action, Perk's student government members put on the play "Godspell" as a finishing touch.

Homecoming Week has always been a week of great fun and excitement at E.C. In addition to planning Old-Fashioned Day, Maroon and White Day, and Dress-up Day, our council made arrangements for decorations and the dance that follows our home game. They also devised a new system for the selection of Homecoming maids and the Homecoming Queen.

The Student Council also helped the Annual Staff out with the Who's Who program.

Officers are Barry Smith, President; Cheryl Dobbs, Vice; Rhonda Porter, Secretary; Rosey Ryals, Treasurer. The Student Council is sponsored by Mr. Benny Goff.

Junior High Student Council

Our Junior High Student Council is a group that concentrates on "knowing what you need to know" to help carry out student government procedure later on in high school. Other than learning about procedure and talking over new ideas, they have prepared the play "Oh Promise Me," a comedy, for the student body. Officers are Lavon James, President; Marlene Broadway, Vice President; Pat Boutwell, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. B. B. Burney sponsors them.

Beta Club

The 1975 Beta Club has produced funds by pen and candy sales, football concession stand work, and a car wash to sponsor the annual trip to State Beta Club Convention in Jackson. They also offer a $50 scholarship to a chosen senior who has maintained the 90 point grade average during high school. Leftover funds financed a pizza party. Nineteen seventy-five officers are Lisa Cumbest, President; Brent Cumbest, Vice; Tanya Carter, Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Hollingshead are the sponsors.

Future Farmers of America

The FFA proved to be one of our most active clubs during this year. Several trips were involved: Field Day for Spray Systems, Inc.; FFA State Convention; Dixie National Livestock Showing Rodeo, Jackson. In addition to these major excursions, the FFA has taken advantage of the smaller opportunities at hand. They have judging teams that specialize either in dairy, livestock, or land evaluations. Other activities include a turkey shoot, a car wash, and a doughnut sale.

President Bob McNeese has shown himself to be truly worthy of his position in the FFA club. He is the 3rd Place winner in the South Mississippi Funks G-Hybrid 300.4 Bushel (Corn) Challenge Contest. He is also a State Star Farmer Candidate, which means that, if chosen, he receives a four-year scholarship to the college of his choice, a $100 dollar check, and a special plaque of recognition.

The 1974-75 Future Farmers of America sponsor is Mr. Mike Grantham. Officers are Bob McNeese, President; Mickey White, Vice President; Kevin Tilley, Secretary; Jimmy Carter, Treasurer; W. A. Shouse, Representative; Danny Robertson, Sentinel.

Future Homemakers of America

The 1974-75 FHA Club has held a number of activities this school year. Fund-raising drives include a bake sale, a raffle, a Senior baby picture contest (winner, Bobby Hanning), and a car wash. These funds finance the FFA-FHA Sweetheart Banquet and the trip to the FHA State Convention in Jackson. Members attending the '75 Convention were Frances Anderson, Linda Bullock, Lynn Carter, Brenda Clark, Joni Comans, Janice Havard, Ruth Jones, Theresa McArthur, Julie Pitts, Vickie Porter, Cheryl Presley, and Debbie Tibbits.

Officers are Brenda Clark, President; Ruth Jones, Vice; Connie Raines, Secretary; Ginger H. Shepard, Treasurer. The sponsors are Mrs. Gatlin and Mrs. Nielson.

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America benefited others by the use of the funds they raised this year by selling E.C. pillows. In October they put together a Thanksgiving basket containing canned and dry goods for a needy family in our vicinity. Christmas stockings were "stocked" and distributed at the Jackson County Nursing Home in Hurley.

Officers are Cheryl Sward, President; Nadine Wasden, Vice; Lisa Cumbest, Secretary; Rose Marie Ryals, Treasurer; Rhonda Porter, Historian. Mrs. H. Brewer and Mrs. M. Tanner are sponsors.
